

Sergul Duygulu, PhD, RN

- Associate Professor
- Hacettepe University Faculty of Nursing,
- Nursing Services Administration Department, Ankara, Turkey

She graduated from Hacettepe University School of Nursing in 1998. She has a PhD in Community Health Nursing Program (2007), a Master in Nursing Services Administration (2001). She worked as a nurse in different areas such as Public Health Center, Pediatric Hospital, Physical Treatment and Rehabilitation Center and Ministry of Health Nursing Chief Office.

She was also a member of Ministry of Health Mugla Provincial Health Directorate Health Educators Team. She was part of the Thematic European Nursing Network and of the Leonardo da Vinci project which is titled “Development of the Professional Knowledge and Skills of Nursing Undergraduate and Graduate Students”. She also was a member of European Union project team established a high fidelity simulation laboratory at Hacettepe University Faculty of Nursing. She has been working as an external evaluator for the nursing education accreditation program, hospital accreditation program and the quality studies of Higher Education Quality Council in Turkey.

She has been in Medizinische Hochschule in Hanover in Germany as an observer for four months in 2006. She also has been as a visiting Scholar at Minnesota University for three months in 2008. She worked as a Research Assistant, Instructor and Assistant Professor at Hacettepe University Faculty of Health Science Nursing Department between 2001 and 2014.

She is working as an Associate Professor at Nursing Services Administration Department. She is Erasmus Coordinator of Hacettepe University faculty of Nursing and Editor of Journal of Hacettepe University Faculty of Nursing. She teaches “Nursing and Leadership Process”, “Education in Nursing” and “Nursing Services Administration”, “Patient Safety and Quality”, “Critical Thinking for Nurses” courses at undergraduate level. She also teaches variety of nursing management courses at graduate level at Hacettepe University. She published articles on nursing leadership, management, nurses' power, nursing education.